1. Three radio stations on the northern coast of the Isle of Rugen were observed. The station at Glowe (N 55/P 77) is a modern building with two towers. The installation which, according to local residents was a radio station during the war, is to be equipped as a police radio station. The station at Lohme (N 55/P 88) is housed in a new building. No details were available on its equipment. There is a radio station near Königsstuhl (N 55/P 87) but the area is blocked off.
2. A police radio station is also located in the area of the former Bug (N 55/P 57) airdrome. *
